ITAPA

PRELIMINARY AGENDA: SPRING ITAPA 2018

Time	May 22nd, 2018
7:30 – 8:30	Registration of participants
8:30 – 9:10	Opening Ceremony (translated into English)
	Alena Kuišová, ITAPA (moderator) Richard Raši Deputy Prime Minister for Investments and Informatization of the Slovak Republic Ladislav Miko Head of the European Commission's Representation in Slovakia Ivo Nesrovnal Mayor of the capital of Slovakia
9:10 – 10:30	Strategic trends in digitalized society (translated into English)
	Alena Kuišová, ITAPA (moderator) Jeremy Millard, Danish Technological Institute – Rethinking smart cities Irena Hudecová, Office for personal data protection – Key GDPR obligations in public administration Mikko Annala, Demos Helsinki, Finland – Experimentation is the new" planning" – How to mainstream it in government? Luke Ravenscroft, BIT - Can Behavioural Insights Improve Public Policy in Slovakia? Martina Slabejová, UPVII - One and enough" principle in the public-sector environment
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee-break
11:00 – 12:30	New generation of projects	Smart regions and smart cities
	Milan Ištván and Lucia Kondáš (moderators) There is a new generation of public administration electronization projects. The purpose of the panel is to describe why these projects have arisen, what is the overall picture of the architecture they fit into. Furthermore, what are the common challenges that affect their success from public procurement, via available human resources, to financing the operation. Peter Hellexa (UPVII) Why demand challenges? Richard Hollý (UPVII) New services of governmental cloud Tomáš Kysela (UPVII) How to publish services to multichannel environment? Why did we inspire ourselves in the UK? Emil Fitoš (ITAS) Risks of the informatization by 2020 and the measurements to eliminate them. René Kubiš (NASES) What will NASES bring in the near future? Ján Hargaš (Slovensko.digital) Return to the football cloakroom Panel discussion	Milan Ftáčnik and Igor Wzoš (moderators) Smart solutions for cities and regions are coming like a wild-fire. IT solutions that can immediately change everyday life of people in the cities and regions. But what is really the smart solution? What is the best practice? And above all what can do the state to help the cities and regions to spread the solutions futher? Michal Kaliňák (ZMOS) Smart agenda for self - governments Elena Szolgayová (MD SR) Smart in the context of sustainable urban development Pavel Nácovský (RASC) The role of cooperation of RASC experts in Smart City in the Czech Republic Denisa Žiláková (CKO) Smart City in the context of European funds Samuel Arbe (MV SR) How to build smart regions in Slovakia Miriam Letašiová (MH SR) (R)evolution in managing townships, cities and regions. Zuzana Nehajová (EY) Project smartification and financing

	Martina Slabejová (ÚPVII) Pavol Frič (Ditec) Peter Kažík (MZ SR) René Kubiš (NASES) Panel speakers	Peter Balik (EIB) Smart cities and regions in V4. How to support them? Panel discussion Katarína Hazuchová + Panel speakers
12:30 – 13:30	colspan Lunch - break
13:30 – 15:00	_Cyber security and personal data protection (translated into English)_ _Ivan Makatúra and Alena Kuišová (moderators)_ Literally, within a few days the GDPR directive will come into effect, bringing a dramatic change in the personal data protection. Are we ready for that? What other threads do we have to deal with? What does cybernetic security mean for public administration? Ivan Makatúra Management of security risks in public administration Roman Pačka (NCKB) Ensuring cyber security in public administration conditions: the case of the Czech Republic Rastislav Janota Current status and chellenges in cyber security Igor Šenkarčin Cyber Security – feeling or reality? Filip Mikuš (Aliter) How to educate SIEM – transition through puberty Juraj Hagara GDPR directive in Social Insurance Agency Peter Fuska (Digmia) How to approach GDPR? Real-life experience from the preparation for the new data protection regulation Pavol Lupták (Nethemba) Ideas so good that they must be	_Effective public administration (translated into English)_ _Samuel Arbe and Lucia Kondáš (moderators)_ Is the effectiveness of the public administration in Slovak conditions only a myth? Or the meta, which Slovakia can achieve in a realistic time horizon? How can Slovak public administration be a leader in EU or OECD countries? And vice versa, what are the weaknesses of Slovak public administration? Florian Hauser (EC) Program for Supporting Structural Reforms, European Trends in Public Administration Reform Juraj Bárdy (Alistiq) Key innovations, that will change a state and shape our future Panel discussion Mikko Annala Luke Ravenscroft (BIT) Alena Sabelová (ÚPVII) Panel speakers

	mandatory Panel discussion Panel speakers + Ondrej Štiahlavský (FORTINET)
15:00 – 15:15	Coffee-break
15:15 – 16:30	Round table discussion (translated into English) Let's move to the 2020. How will Slovak eGovernment look like? Will the public administration be re -reformed? Will we achieve the set priorities? Will the Slovak regions and cities already implement smart solutions? And will the solutions be safe? Martina Slabejová, Rastislav Janota, Ľubor Illek, Samuel Arbe, Alena Sabolová, Emil Fitoš, Milan Ištván, Milan Ftáčnik, Denisa Žiláková
16:30 – 17:30	Closing Ceremony with glass of wine